

From the desk of Minister-In-Charge, Labour Department

This is a moment of great joy for all of us in this Department that a new Departmental website is launched, thus meeting a long-standing need. It is so designed as to make it a user-friendly one. Access to information relating to this Department will now be just a click away. On the other hand, dissemination of information will also be hassle-free.

On this occasion, I extend my special thanks to the team that has made it possible.
