Dated : 09-03-2021

Applicant namely, Sri Rathin Kumar Das is present with his Ld. Advocate.

Today is fixed for passing order in respect of a verified petition dated 26.02.2020, filed by the applicant, praying for permission to withdraw the instant case with a liberty to sue afresh as per law.

Case record is taken up for passing order.

Perused the present petition for withdrawal along with statement of claim, filed by the applicant and also materials on record.

This is a case under Section 2A(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as amended, filed by the applicant/workman namely, Sri Rathin Kumar Das on 16.04.2019 against his employer OP/Company namely, M/s. Worldgate Express Lines International Pvt. Ltd., in connection with termination of his service by way of refusal of employment w.e.f. 06.06.2016 declaring that such termination of service is illegal, unjust, mala fide amounting to invalid, improper and inoperative with a prayer to reinstate him in service with full back wages / salary and incidental benefits.

Now, the point which comes for consideration is that as to whether the applicant can be permitted to withdraw the instant case on the ground that Section 2A(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has been repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 2016 (No.23 of 2016) w.e.f. 09.05.2016 or not ?

Let me now see the relevant provision of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

Before the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 2010 (24 of 2010), Section 2A of the said Act was as follows :-

2-A. Dismissal, etc., of an individual workman to be deemed to be an industrial dispute.- Where any employer discharges, dismisses, retrenches, or otherwise terminates the services of an individual workman, any dispute or difference between that workman and his employer connected with, or arising out of, such discharge, dismissal, retrenchment or termination shall be deemed to be an industrial dispute notwithstanding that no other workman nor any union of workmen is a party to the dispute.

By the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 2010 (24 of 2010), Section 2A was renumbered as sub-section (1) and by the same Act i.e. Act 24 of 2010 sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) came to be inserted after section 2A (1) of the I. D. Act. The said amendment came into effect on and from 15th September, 2010 and after such amendment section 2A runs as follows :-

[2-A. Dismissal, etc., of an individual workman to be deemed to be an industrial dispute.- (1) Where any employer discharges, dismisses, retrenches, or otherwise terminates the services of an individual workman, any dispute or difference between that workman and his employer connected with, or arising out of, such discharge, dismissal, retrenchment or termination shall be deemed to be an industrial dispute notwithstanding that no other workman nor any union of workmen is a party to the dispute.]

[(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 10, any such workman as is specified in sub-section (1) may, make an application direct to the Labour Court or Tribunal for adjudication of the dispute referred to therein after the expiry of forty-five days from the date he has made the application to the Conciliation Officer of the appropriate Government for conciliation of the dispute, and in receipt of such application the Labour Court or Tribunal shall have powers and jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the dispute, as if it were a dispute referred to it by the appropriate Government in accordance with the provisions of this Act and all the provisions of this Act shall apply in relation to such adjudication as they apply in relation to an industrial dispute referred to it by the appropriate Government.

(3) The application referred to in sub-section (2) shall be made to the Labour Court or Tribunal before the expiry of three years from the date of discharge, dismissal, retrenchment or otherwise termination of service as specified in sub-section (1).]

Thereafter, by the Repealing and Amending Act, 2016 (No.23 of 2016), the whole Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 2010 (24 of 2010) has been repealed. The said Repealing and Amending Act, 2016 (No.23 of 2016) came into effect on and from 09.05.2016, as it appears in The Gazette of India (Extraordinary, Part-II, Section 1). In absence of any specific provision to the contrary, the Repealing and Amending Act, 2016 (No.23 of 2016) is to be held operative prospectively. So, original Section 2A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 came into force again on and from 09.05.2016.

Admittedly, this case has been filed under Section 2A (2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as amended, on 16.04.2019, which is long after repealing of the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 2010 (24 of 2010), repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 2016 (No.23 of 2016). So, it is clear that on the date of filing of the instant case i.e. on 16.04.2019, there is no existence of Section 2A(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and/or Section 2A(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 had no application on 16.04.2019.

Therefore, in view of my above made discussion and findings, I think that the applicant should be permitted to withdraw the case for the interest of justice with a liberty to sue afresh in terms of existing law.

Hence, it is,

that the petition dated 26.02.2020, for withdrawal of the instant case is allowed without costs.

Applicant namely, Sri Rathin Kumar Das is permitted to withdraw the instant Case No. 12 of 2019 under Section 2A(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, with a liberty to sue afresh in terms of existing law.

The instant proceedings stands disposed of as withdrawn.

This is my Award.

Let six 6 (six) copies of the Award be sent to the Appropriate Authority for information and taking necessary action.
