Parties take no steps.

On repeated calls, neither the parties nor their ld. advocates appear.

The reference was received by this Tribunal from the Government to adjudicate the issues enumerated therein.

The workman did not appear despite due service of notice. The company initially appeared on receiving the notice, but subsequently they did not turn up and file any written statement.

Considering the facts and circumstances, nature of the case as well as the conduct of the parties it appears that none of the parties is interested to proceed with the case leading this Tribunal to presume that the dispute between the parties no longer exists.

Therefore, the instant reference is disposed of under Rule 22 of the West Bengal Industrial Dispute Rules, 1958 on the footing that there no longer exists any industrial dispute.

Copies of the award be sent to the Labour Department, Government of West Bengal according to usual norms and rules.
